

Canadian Deaf Sports Association 2018-19 National Badminton Program

The Canadian Deaf Sports Association (CDSA) wishes to pursue its National Badminton Program for 2018-19. In order to base the program on the Long Term Athlete Development model (LTAD) and with the assistance of a certified national coach (National Coaching Certification Program, Level 3), CDSA will organize tournaments and clinics in collaboration with two Provincial Deaf Sports Associations (PDSA).

ASSQ 11th Annual Tournament | January 13-14, 2018

Friendly Badminton tournament on January 13th followed by a clinic (1) with the national coach on January 14th from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Location: Cégep du Vieux Montreal in Montreal, Quebec.

Registration and accommodation: covered by CDSA (2).

ADSA Badminton Tournament | April 14-15, 2018

Friendly Badminton tournament on April 14th followed by a clinic (1) with the national coach on April 15th from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Location: Alberta School for the Deaf in Edmonton, Alberta

Registration and accommodation: covered by CDSA (2).

(1) During clinics, the coach will divide participants in 2 groups (beginner and intermediate levels)

(2) Some conditions apply. CDSA will offer accommodation for two nights and the registration cost for free to participants. Participants from the PDSAs (ASSQ in January and ADSA in April) will not benefit from this offer.

April / May 2018

Invitation from the national coach and CDSA to potential players, who can represent Team Canada (badminton) at international events. Possibility of training camps for the National Team in summer 2018 and winter 2019.
