Alberta Deaf Sports Association

Bylaws

DEFINITION: Deaf – includes hard of hearing and/or hearing loss who have hearing loss at least 55 decibels in each of both ears.

1 GENERAL

1.1 The name of the Association will be Alberta Deaf Sports Association (L'Association du Sports des Sourds du Alberta), also to be known as hereafter as ADSA (ASSA).

1.2 Objectives of the Alberta Deaf Sports Association:

- a. To promote, encourage and develop competitive amateur sports activities and programs for the deaf people in the Province of Alberta.
- b. To encourage members to develop and increase skills and train to compete with others in their amateur sport competitions at provincial, national and/or international levels.
- c. To assume the responsibilities of hosting provincial, national and/or international sport events.
- d. To formulate policies consistent with these aforementioned objectives.

1.3 The Head Office of the Alberta Deaf Sports Association is in Alberta at a civic address that the Board of Directors may decide at any time.

2 MEMBERSHIP AND FEES

2.1 Memberships shall be valid for one year from the date of issue on the first day of September.

2.2 Eligibility

- a. Any individual residing in the Province of Alberta having a genuine interest in the objectives and activities of the association may become a member upon payment of a membership fee as described in the by-laws.
- b. All Active or Associate Individual members of the Association:
 - i. Are only individual persons having no active or associate membership of local/provincial club or association affiliated with the Association.
 - ii. Are required to pay annual fees before being eligible for participation.

Any individual member under the age of eighteen must have a parent or guardian to sign the pre-paid membership application before the individual is eligible to participate.

2.3 Categories

There are five types of membership in the Alberta Deaf Sports Association:

1. ACTIVE INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP

- a. Deaf persons (Canadian citizens and Landed Immigrants) are participating and actively involved with the Association with voting privilege during the Alberta Deaf Sports Association's Annual General Meeting. They, as eligible participants in the official games sanctioned by the Canadian Deaf Sports Association and the Alberta Deaf Sports Association, are required to become paid members before participating.
- b. Deaf persons are eligible for any position of the Executive Board slate through the nomination and election process during the Annual General Meeting. The minimum age is the same as the Alberta Legal drinking age.

2. ASSOCIATE INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP

- a. Hearing persons, who participate and help the Alberta Deaf Sports Association, are required to become associate members. However, they may not vote at the meetings of the association. However, they may voice their opinions in the meetings.
- b. Hearing persons are eligible to participate in any sports sanctioned by the Alberta Deaf Sports Association with the strict exception of competition for provincial championship prior to the next level of the National Deaf Sport Championship sanctioned by the Canadian Deaf Sports Association.

3. AFFILIATE INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP

- a. Affiliate Individual membership is for deaf persons being members of a local club and includes the similar privileges as Active Individual members, but they are not eligible for participation in official sanctioned games described in 1a.
- b. Associate Individual membership is for hearing persons being members of a local club and includes the similar privileges as Associate Individual members, but they are not eligible for participation in sports described in 2b.
- c. Deaf persons with Student or Work Visas are participating and actively involved with the Association. They have no voting privilege during the Alberta Deaf Sports Association's Annual General Meeting. They, as eligible participants in the official games sanctioned by the Canada Deaf Sports Association and the Alberta Deaf Sports Association, are required to become paid members before participating. The minimum stay in Canada must exceed one (1) year and a proof of visa must be provided upon paying the membership.

4. HONORARY MEMBERSHIP

Honorary Membership shall be open to any deserved Individual proposed by the affiliated provincial association or board of directors in writing for their records of getting actively involved with Deaf sports in Alberta subject to an approval of the Alberta Deaf Sports Association's Executive Board. Upon the approval, those individuals, who will receive a formal Alberta-shaped plaque during a special award presentation, shall:

- a. have all the privileges of active or associate individual membership in the association but will have rights to vote and hold office of any executive position of the Association. They must be residents of Alberta.
- b. be given free membership with Alberta Deaf Sports Association.

5. SUSTAINING INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP

Sustaining individual membership shall be open to any individual whom the Executive Board has reviewed and approved for recognition. Individuals are recognized for making generous financial assistance to the Alberta Deaf Sports Association for the purpose of promoting amateur sports for the Deaf in Alberta.

- 2.4 Any member, except an Associate Individual or Associate Affiliate Member, who has not withdrawn from membership or has not been suspended or expelled, as herein provided, shall have the right to vote at any annual general or special meetings of the organization. Such votes must be made in person and not by proxy or otherwise.
- 2.5 Membership fees and/or extra fees shall be determined only during the Alberta Deaf Sports Association's Annual General Meeting.
- 2.6 If an Active or Associate Individual Member has not paid her/his membership renewal fee by October 1st including one grace period of 30 days after the due by September 1st, her/his name is automatically removed from the Alberta Deaf Sports Association's membership list. When a membership payment is made and received, the member's name will be added to the Alberta Deaf Sports Association's membership list and the member will be permitted to participate.
- 2.7 Any members wishing to withdraw from membership may do so upon written notice to the Alberta Deaf Sports Association through the Secretary. Fees will not be reimbursed.
